April 2015

Welcome to your April America's Voices survey. Please note that, as usual, you can take the survey at your convenience and if you need to stop the survey at any point, you may do so and return at any time to pick up where you stopped. However, please try to complete the survey in a single session if you can. If you like, you can give us your comments about any of the questions at the end of the survey.

The Supreme Court is deciding whether it is legal in all states for the federal government to provide financial help to low and moderate income people under the new health care law. It is argued by some that it is illegal to subsidize health insurance for people in states that developed their own health insurance exchanges.

In your opinion, are the financial subsidies for health insurance for people in states that developed their own health insurance exchanges legal or illegal?

Select one answer only

- legal
- illegal
- not sure
